Mary, Our heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with you. We did have the pleasure of meeting Dan and it was easy to see why you were soul mates. He was such a giving and loving personality and he cherished you as you did him. I've expressed it to you before that I have never seen so much love and devotion between two persons. You will be without him physically for a while but one day you will experience something unbelievable! The reuniting of the two of you! Until then God will be your strength and comfort. Dan will forever be in your heart, mind and deep in your very soul. Love from all of us here. Linda, Rick, Steven, Gage and Steve.

Brandi & Amanda ~ Denny & I were so very shocked & saddened to hear of Dan's passing. We've known him for a long time & know he loved you girls with everything he had & everything he was. I can still see in such vivid memory him holding you girls after you were born & when you all would come up to work on the farm -standing straight and tall holding his little girls with that huge grin on his face. Dan was a very kind a caring person who loved life large & will forever be missed by all. Please know you all are in our thoughts & prayers now & in the days to come!The hardest loss in life is that of a parent. So I give to you girls some advice that helped me when my Momma passed away five years ago.... It's not goodbye .... it's see you later
