Dear Matt and Elizabeth, I was so sorry to read of baby Maria's passing, yet I think it a blessing that though her life was short you got two days with her. Knowing of her problems, I think two days sound like many years. She graced you and your many friends and family who have cared about her these many months. I suspect she will be caring for you and them for a long time to come. Just think of the cascades of love that were her inheritance even before she was born. God bless you and young Joseph and all of your families. Hearts hurt but her soul is rejoicing in her newfound wholeness. Steve joins me in sending his sympathies and hope for your continued good lives. With love and respect, Ann Vanderslice
