Dear Katheryn, Terry and I were saddened to read of the passing of your husband, Scott. I enjoyed knowing Scott and you. As you know, he worked on the Architectural Committee with me, soon after we took over from Florida leisure. I was glad for his guidance and voice of reason, as we developed the Committee. Sadly, we didn't see you or Scott as much in the last few years, after you moved to Fiddle leaf. Please accept our condolences. If there is anything I can do in the future, don't hesitate to call me. God bless Scott and you. Frank Kotomski
