I served in the Army with Craig Bouilly. In late 1988, I was a stressed out soldier in the 3-325 Airborne Battalion Combat Team in Vicenza, Italy. I was able to join the Cold Weather Cadre where Staff Sargent Bouilly was the leader of the ski instructor team. Craig was a God-send to me at that time. He had a knack for making every situation fun and light hearted, without ever compromising the importance of the mission. He was just the leader I needed at that time, and those were the best 4-months of my military career. I owe that experience to him. He was frankly one of the finest leaders I've ever worked with. RIP - SSG Bouilly. I solute you. You'll never be forgotten.
