A mother who gave her all! A woman who showed compassion! God loves those who are broken and she was broken by lives blows! When our children go through sorrows we go through pain and sorrow with them! A broken heart sometimes cannot face another day! Father I pray that her children and grandchildren will never forget her selfless servant love for each and every one of them! I pray for one of her sons who has gone off on a wide road like a prodigal son that led him to destruction and that You My Father will bring him close to You! Let the seed of his mother that has gone into the ground grow strong and godly for You, my Father! I pray for her prayers to be answered for this one! There is a scripture that comes to mind and it is found in Psalm 126:5-6 Those who cry while they plant will joyfully sing while they harvest! The person who goes out weeping, carrying his/her bag of seed, will come home singing, carrying his/her bundle of grain! I choose to believe that her weeping and broken heart will produce a bundle of grain that will flourish and grow into The Tree of Life which is only found when we are rooted in Jesus/Yeshua Our Messiah, who gave His life to give us life. May her prayers all be answered from this day forth, for all her family! Shalom and blessings to her family!
