I remember Scott waking me up in the morning a few weeks ago, telling me to get out of bed, he then made me waffles that he told Terii to them take out for your mother. He cheated on cards and I knew it. He laughed and laughed. He loved our trip to Cracker Barrel. It was wonderful. He told me to order anything I wanted on the menu, "price is nothing, I'm paying". He wanted me to have shrimp but i said no I was allergic. Glad I had the time with him a few weeks ago. He took off work. Love him so much. Enjoyed our talk in his office. Rest in Peace. I love you so much. You are in our hearts forever. Peace be with you. No more pain. Love always Mom Kessler.

To my Daddy. I love you so very much. I will forever miss you. I remember all the good times. When you would take me hunting we would go for breakfast first. Then sit in the woods. Never saw any animals but my time with you will forever be edged in my soul. You worked so hard. Always providing for your family. Always loved getting the big box of Christmas presents. So many memories. I love you so much. Your precious daughter Tara
