I am Donna's oldest cousin on her Mother's side. When she was born, her mother told us her name in a note that she left at our door. I did not even pronounce it correctly at the time. My brother and I have many good memories of playing with Donna and her brothers and sisters as we all grew up in her home town, Athens, Tennessee. One time my dad and I went to her house, and she said, " Our TV is not working, we can not see the program you wanted to see." She was about six, but thought only about what my dad and I wanted. My heart and prayers are with all who love her. David Neil Saint Louis, Mo
