Ms.Marilyn is my boyfriend,Nathan Poissant's,great aunt. This kind,sweet optimistic lady left such an imprint on my ❤️. For the past 3 yrs. she and I cultivated such a beautiful friendship, via Facebook. Having never met her face to face ,I kept insisting to Nathan how vitally important it was that she and I finally meet . Although it was only 2 visits, getting to spend quality time, having our kids loved on and just making wonderful memories with her was priceless. One thing I will forever cherish about Ms.Marilyn was her beautiful smile and selflessness. She embraced me with a love as if she'd known me a lifetime. This precious lady knew no strangers and loved her family big. I'm sad your gone Ms.Marilyn and will miss our Facebook chats but I find comfort in knowing your in a wonderful place now,healthy and whole. Love you always , 🌸 Jennifer,Nathan and kids

My dearest Mar... I will miss you terribly, but keep you in my heart always and remember the good times we had with Norm and Mom and Dad in Florida, and when you were here in RI. When Norm died we held each other up by calling each other names you were my rock and I was your pebbles.. I wish I could be there to say my last goodbye, but I know you hear me. we shared a lot on facebook and on the phone.. I love you always my dear friend. Rest in peace .

Auntie Marilyn will be missed. I remember visiting her and Uncle Norm when I was younger. They were neighbors and good friends with my grandparents. My mom remained close with her after they passed, she worked for Norm when she was young, and I loved seeing and talking to her on Facebook and exchanging Christmas cards. 😊
