Mom, you have always been the most beautiful, loving, caring woman I've ever known. Always tended to everyone's needs before your own. May you RIP in your heavenly home. You are missed more than you could ever possibly know. I will treasure the past 7 months we were able to be together 24/7. I loved taking care of you. I love you always and will keep you tucked away in my heart. It is comforting to know that now you have no more pain and after 30 years you are with Dad again.

I still have vivid memories of driving Uncle Newt's Jeep (I think?) all over the Waldrup Road property with Gail while the house was being built, and then coming in to Aunt Wilma's huge country-style delicious meals. RIP, Aunt Wilma, you brought joy to a lot of souls.
