Rockey Lee Fulcher

MAR 26, 1981 - OCT 11, 2020

Born in Madison, Indiana, Rockey was an Army/Navy brat who lived in Indiana, Virginia, Pennsylvania, North Carolina and finally settled in Florida, where he spent most of his life. He has 2 beautiful daughters, McKenna age 12 and Kaelyn age 4, who he shares with the love of his life of 16 years, Lacy Roundtree. He attended church in Lakeland, Florida and his faith in Christ was important to him. He was employed by Intelligent Networks, as well as, Home Renovation Projects, both owned by his good friend Anthony Newman. He is survived by his love (Lacy Roundtree), daughters (McKenna & Kaelyn), dad (Ernie Fulcher), step-mother (Linda Fulcher), mother (Connie Griffen), step-father (Micheal Griffen), brother & sister-in-law (Shawn & Kelli Fulcher), niece (Alyssa Fulcher), nephew (Cody Fulcher), brother (Frankie Fulcher), and many uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Rockey deeply loved his children, family and friends. He was an exceptionally talented carpenter who enjoyed working with his hands. Rockey was passionate about music and would often DJ. He also loved and enjoyed working with Milwaukee power tools, eating pizza, and drinking Mountain Dew.

Rockey is preceded in death by his sister (Carmen Fulcher), paternal grandparents (Frank & Katherine Fulcher), maternal grandparents (Martin & Geraldine Evans), aunt (Glenda Evans), and cousin (Raymond Batchelor).
