Thinking of all of you during this hard time and remembering all of the wonderful adventures we spent together. So many summers at the farm, dinners together and nights I spent at your place. In later years my kids have special memories of Uncle Connie & Aunt Ann coming over for Holiday dinners. Such special times! I'm so thankful that Cathy and I were able to visit with him and see that beautiful smile before he became ill. My heart is full though sad. Hugs & prayers, all my love, Connie

Thinking of all of you during this time. I know how tough it is. I still think about calling my dad.....
Wow, what a long wonderful life. The Mertely's have longevity in their blood, that is for sure. I remember all the Sunday's we spent at your house. I loved going there and doing all the fun things you got to do in the country. I always wanted to live on a farm with six kids, glad that didn't happen. Four is certainly enough. I remember going to Pitt Pac and visiting your dad at work. Catching a ride to Gramma's or your house, or him bringing me home after a visit. I am glad that Connie and I visited with Uncle Connie and Bonnie just weeks ago. He looked so great, way younger than his 97 years. I am sure he is busy talking stocks with my dad or something financial.Hugs and prayers to all of you, love, Cathy
