My dearest Nathan, I love you and always will. I never thought I would be writing on something like this for you. I hate that we never got the future that we wanted, but I am glad in the short time that we had together I got to pick up the pieces and build you back up to the man you were. I truly believe you are my one true love. It does bring a little comfort that I will see you again one day and we can be together like we wanted to be. I love you my love and miss you dearly.

So many special memories of you Nathan. From your first plane ride to spending the night in the hospital together to playing disc golf to NYE at Disney springs! I thank God you were apart of my life and I miss you already. I'm happy knowing you were happy before you left us. I know I will see you again. Thank you for being a great, caring, thoughtful, meaningful friend. Love you.

Missing you already, and all our talks. Was so looking forward to Your visit at Christmas. I just you and Gina could have realized your dreams. We shared so many things like our blind one eye and one deaf ear. I could truly understand your frustrations. Rest in peace, till we meet again.
