To Whomever Reads This, With the recent acknowledgment of your transition, I felt compelled to speak—to honor a soul whose presence, though brief in my life, left a lasting impact. It was a pleasure to have crossed paths with you. In such a short time, during a season when I thought forgiveness was beyond my reach, I learned so much. Your energy, your grace, and your gift of intuition were powerful—guiding lights for many, including me. My heart is heavy knowing I won't have the opportunity in this lifetime to sit again in the presence of your spirit. But I know souls like yours are eternal travelers. This too shall pass, as all things do. I'll never forget who you were, who you are becoming, and the truth that we are merely occupants of these vessels. I believe our meeting had divine timing. Around the time we connected. Later in years, I was sick and hospitalized, facing uncertainties. I remember that I am loved, I am cared for, and that everything we endure is part of a greater plan—one far beyond human understanding. You mattered. Your life mattered. And your light continues. To your family, your bloodline, and all who walk forward in your memory—I send strength, peace, and blessings as we must continue our personal roads untraveled. With heartfelt love, Kimberly

I happened to think about him today and did a search. I so sorry to hear that Dane has passed. Countless La Conner memories. One of my favorite is when we recorded Seinfeld episodes on VHS to watch before class. He would laugh so loudly. He was great at any sport, but basketball was the best!! I am grateful for his friendship and glad he was in my graduating class of 1998. I hope his Mom, Peggy knows how much he loved her!

What an incredibly sad discovery: I looked Dane up on the internet to let him know how much I was enjoying his Dissertation ' A Trireme Democracy? Ideological Aspects of the 5th century Athenian Fleet'. I'm researching some of the topics he covered in this Dissertation for a personal project. It's so informative and scholarly without being over-stuffy or pompous - a rare talent. Inexplicably upset - all I know of him is this paper he must have written quite some time ago. Sending sincere condolences to all his family and friends who have suffered such an untimely deprivation. Janet Jay France - 02.VII.23

My name is Bethany Blacksher. I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Dane! I'm so sorry for his family's loss! I met Dane when I was a freshman in high school and he was a senior at LaConner. we had a lot of good times hanging out together. I haven't talked to Dane since after that time in about 1999 but I have tried to reach out and find him online to reconnect but was unsuccessful finding him. Dane was so very handsome, funny, popular, so good at sports. Dane was a good person and I'm gonna miss him and the time spent together. RIP Dane my dear friend always, I miss you!

Gosh this is so sad to hear, My prayers go out to Peggy and Daidri and the rest of the family...you have been through so many hard times this last year in the last few months even, but stick together and I pray that you can find some comfort knowing he is always with you. I remember Well growing up with Digory we all knew her older brother was Dane and I had an older brother and he went to school with Dane and I think it was like my freshman year in high school we heard that Dane was throwing a big party at his house! So we showed up and it was one of the biggest parties ever! I will never forget him, he was crazy and fun and welcomed everyone he never thought he was better than someone else he had a good heart ❤️ prayers for Daidri Lundberg, I cannot imagine losing a sibling, big hugs 🤗.

I had the biggest crush on Dane. He was a few grades older and a basketball star. He drove the cool car to school. I just thought he was the coolest thing around. When I was at their house I just prayed he was home so I could get a glimpse. Lol. He and I actually became friends. He taught me how to drive my stick when I kicked my mom out of my car within 5 min. I remember driving up to his house to pick him up and stalling on the big hill up to eagles nest and having to back up all the way down in the dark with tinted windows scared as hell. He did a great job teaching me how to drive. One of the last memories I have of Dane, he came over to my house on his senior year, just graduated and signed my yearbook and hung out for the night. It was one of those moments that I will never forget and because of that it brings tears to my eyes knowing he isn't here anymore. Sending my love to the Lundberg family, not only for Dane but for Daidri's sweet little girl Gabria!
