Chuck & Barbara Raymond

DEC 29, 2021

Charles Lawrence and Barbara Ann Raymond, married more than 26 years, entered His kingdom on December 29, 2021. They dedicated their lives to serving the Lord and serving others as the Spirit led from North America to Central America, the Caribbean, Europe and beyond.

Chuck was a military veteran serving as an Army Ranger in the 101st Airborne Regiment during the Vietnam War. After his military service he transitioned into land development and contracting. He had a passion for avionics and despite battling dyslexia he acquired his pilot's license after 56 years.

Barbara was a gifted educator, with a passion for children-she earned her degree in early childhood education after raising her five children. She was an anointed Sign Language interpreter and considered that a worship to her Father.

Together they shared a heart for ministry, mentoring adults, teens and children alike. They were ordained ministers who traveled the world teaching and sharing the word of God with open arms and loving hearts.

They were preceded in death by a younger brother, parents, and grandparents.

Survived by their siblings: David (Rachele), Bill (Donna), Anita (Butch), Marla, Jimmy (Donna); Bob, Beth (Michael), Debi (Joe); as well as their children, Christopher, Paul, Ca'see (Richard), Cort'nee, Lisa, Terri, Kelly, Larry (Diane), Staci (Michael); 16 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews, and countless spiritual children across the world "...a quiver full!" Ps. 127:4-5

I worked at Lena Vista Elem with Barbara and she was such a prayer warrior and I really loved being around her as I felt the love of Jesus through her sweet Spirit. We also attended Life Church together. She was a breath of fresh air and will truly miss her. Chuck grew up here in Auburndale and I knew his sons as they attended Lena Vista back in the day. These two were such awesome people and have left behind beautiful memories and a legacy we won't ever forget. We will be together one day in Heaven. Prayers for the family and many friends not only today but everyday with lots of love and hugs too

I was one of the many healed by God through Chuck's ministry; from addiction to alcohol and nicotine. Barbara and Chuck were quite the team. They were partners in Kingdom Business together and demonstrated what it meant to live as Christians. Thanks be to God for them. Andrew Simpson & Family from Barbados.

I met Barbara when we were both teaching at Lena Vista. She had such peace and joy, and I was amazed at how quickly she could calm the children. I wanted what she had, so when she invited me to church, I accepted. I met Jesus there, and I've never been the same since!! Thank You Lord for allowing Barbara to be a part of my life. I pray You would give the family comfort and peace during this time. Barbara and Chuck will be missed, but I know they are dancing together in heaven!! 😊❤️

20 years ago they helped baptize me, my husband Andrew and my daughter Chloe at the same time. It was in Barbados in the Caribbean sea at sunset. A blessed evening. Barbs was my spiritual mum who continued to look out for me for the last 20 years. I loved them so very much and I am devastated that they are gone. My one slice is that they are in heaven together. Love Heidi
