From the very first time I met Ms. Kitty, she was such a light. I used to deliver her Instacart orders. Each time we prayed together and she spoke of how lucky she was to have such wonderful children who took care of her. She used to tell me that it was a good day because the Lord woke her up to live another day. I passed by her home today to deliver to a neighbor and saw that the blinds were closed. She told me she always had them open to let the light in. My condolences to her family. She will be so missed.

Rev. Paul Joseph Langevin, Ofm Conv. posted:

My parents, the late +Thomas and Margaret (now relocated back to Ohio) Langevin were very blessed to have known Kitty while at Saint Anthony Parish. When I would visit my parents during scheduled family visits throughout my formation and seminary studies, Kitty would always reach out for a chat to hear how I was doing and sing the praises of my parents. A selfless gesture which was Kitty's trademark. She was so kind to send cards to me, encourage me, and give me updates on how she was doing. She has been in my constant prayers....and in the prayers of my Mom during her soul's journey home to our loving Creator. We take consolation in the assurances of faith that Kitty will share in the Resurrection of the Lord with all her good deeds accompanying her. Prayers continue for Kitty's family in your loss. Praise The Lord, Miss Kitty! You are finally where you wanted to be. You were my mentor, my prayer partner, and my friend for over 35 years. Oh, the laughter we shared and the tears, forming the loving family of OLQM. Your legacy lives on in "the girls", in me, and in the lives of all those parents and students you comforted and guided. What a blessing you were each and every day, encouraging me to "do what ya gotta do!", believing in me, and right to the very end, listening, laughing and praying with me. Alleluia, I rejoice in your risen presence. Ruth

Mrs Kitty... you are the most loving and caring individual that I know. You raised such a wonderful family and they are very blessed to have you in their life. I enjoyed taking care of you in the hospital and laughing and sharing jokes with you. You are someone I will never forget. Some of our conversations we had I will carry on and remember forever. May you rest in peace and know you are still loved and cherished every day.
