Bob was a good neighbor, always available when I needed help. Enjoyed many a meal and card game with him. A strong Christian man that served our congregation well. Will miss his stories of his time in the Navy.

When my husband, Dean and I, found out that Bob passed away it just broke our hearts. We had just driven by their house while in town and didn't want to just stop in after not seeing them for 22 years since we moved away. We really should have stopped! Bob and Bea were such fine neighbors and friends. I called Bea today and told her I would be staying in the old neighborhood next month. We plan to get together. Bob rub Boscoe's head for us. We always loved Boscoe!!!
