6 Things You should Know about my Grandad. By Andrew Scheib
1 My Grandad is wise. He has a lot of experience in life and made many decisions that got him where he is today. He has taught me a lot of different things that have helped me in the everyday world. He also served in the Air Force for 32 years so it made him someone who knows a lot about cherishing things and stuff like that.
2 My Grandad is brave. He is brave because he served in the Air Force for 32 years mostly away from his family and that takes a lot of courage. Another reason was because he was high ranked and it takes a lot of work and bravery to get there.
3 My Grandad is caring. My Grandad has always been there for us if we ever needed it. He would take us to get school clothes and school supplies every year and get us ready for the school year. He would also get us groceries if we were ever in a rough spot and couldn't get them ourselves.
4 My Grandad is intelligent. He always knows what to do in tough situations. He also can help us with different things we might be struggling with, like homework. Lastly he's really smart with different business decisions so he can help family and friends if they need help with that too.
5 My Grandad is determined. My Grandad has always been determined in life. He was determined to take care of his family and he did very well with that because of the things he did. Also while he was in the Air Force he wanted to be at the top and he made it very far.
6 My Grandad is responsible. He has always made sure that the most important things come first like his family. He also made sure everything was taken care of like bills. Lastly he was responsible because he takes care of everyone he cares about.
