Toni was one of the sweetest people that I have ever known. We met through her oil business & became friends. We spent so many hours talking about life & things in general, from her spoiled rotten dog to her spoiled rotten life partner. I'm pretty sure that she had a calendar that reminded her each month to call me. I knew she was always busy with hair & nail appointments or going back & fourth to the V.A. with Dennis or taking the "Baby" to the groomers, but if I didn't hear from her in a few days I would call to check on her. I will miss you Toni & I will surely miss our conversations. As we always said at the end of visit or conversation, "I Love You Girl!"
