I terribly regret not hearing of Barry's passing until just now. My wife Sallie Epting Zifer and I had the privilege of lunch with Barry a few months prior to his death. Barry was one of the finest young men at Pasco High. I moved to Texas and lost touch with most classmates for some 50 years. It was a blessing to reminisce with Barry at lunch. He was a wonderful and loyal Patriot serving multiple tours in Nam when so many avoided or evaded service. My regret as I told him over lunch was not getting to know him better in high school. He was always polite, quiet, and very kind. He stood out as one with a Christian heart of love. Can't wait to dine with him again in Heaven and meet his sons. Salute you Barry, my friend.

I missed being able to see Barry the last couple of times that I went to the Lakeland area.. Tried to set up lunches with our old boss Pete, but things did not work out. I guess AO claims another one. Understand he had been going to the VA clinic there in Lakeland. This was both a shock and a surprise as I had no inkling that this would happen. Brenda and Mitch, my condolences! John Williams

Went to school with Barry from grade school until he went into the army. We reconnected before our 50th class reunion, which he helped with. I'm shocked this has happened, Brenda I wish we could have met. He loved you so much, and your grandson. God bless you during this time. Ann Hardy Roberts
