Frances Morgan Smith

NOV 7, 1940 - APR 27, 2024

Frances Jean Morgan Smith, a pillar of strength in her community known for her unwavering dedication to family and tireless commitment to her faith, passed away peacefully at home on April 27, 2024 after a brief, but fierce, battle with cancer. Frances had 83 loving and joy-filled years before she entered Heaven.

Born in Lakeland, Florida on November 7th, 1940, Frances grew up with a deep sense of compassion and full of elegance and charm. She embarked on a journey marked by resilience and determination, shaping the lives of those she encountered along the way. Frances was widowed twice and overcame both tragic losses with grace. Despite the trials of her own life, Frances always held a door open when friends or family needed a home or a hug. Her steady presence could even be glimpsed in the pristine pastries she decorated when she worked in baking, providing an external symbol of her inner fortitude.

Frances leaves behind a legacy of love and empathy that will be cherished by her surviving family members. She is survived by her devoted children, Mark Morgan and Kim Phillips, their spouses, Nancy Morgan and Kelly Phillips, and her five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren, who will continue to carry forward her memory with love and reverence. She will also be remembered affectionately by her surviving siblings, Joseph Keil and Barbara Glavas, as well as by her siblings-in-law, nieces, and nephews.

Throughout her life, Frances exemplified the values of kindness, integrity, and generosity, touching the lives of countless individuals through her acts of selflessness. She answered every call for help and fiercely protected those she loved. Her devotion to her faith presented many opportunities to support those in need and she did – giving of her time, talents, and resources whenever possible. While Frances was certainly generous, she was also funny. No matter the situation, she found a way to joke through it. Whether it was giving sassy remark that elicited an eyeroll, dancing in the car with her grandchildren, laughing at herself, or sharing an amusing story, Frances kept people smiling. She also had an appreciation for beauty that she shared with those around her. She loved tea parties, dresses, figurines, and flowers. Indeed, Frances' impact

I have been truly blessed to have Fran in my life for the past twenty-seven years. She was a dynamic influence regarding my walk of faith. Her greatest desire was to please her Lord and Savior; and live a life of love to those around her. I appreciate so much that God brought her into my life. I will greatly miss her, even as she lives on in my heart.

My Aunt Fran and her brother Uncle Joe. I still remember them this way. RIP Aunt Fran. I will miss you forever.

Joyce Goodman posted:

Fran was one of those friends who came into my life at just the right time. I remember the first time I met her she was the most friendly and kind person I have ever known. She walked up to me at church and ask if she could sit with me. That was 22years ago. She was someone I could talk to about anything. I loved her like a sister. I have the promise that I will see her again one day.
