Mom,

To the person who always loved me no matter who I was...mom I love you so much, there are not enough words, hours, minutes, or days for me to even try. You were always there when I needed you even if I didn't know it. You have always been and will always be my best friend. We spent my whole life together, there was never a day when I didn't see your face or hear your voice. We would spend hours on the phone about nothing but never ran out of things to say. You were the one constant in my life even through so much chaos. I truly don't know what I will do without you.

-I love you to the moon and back

Love, Melissa

Mom,

It took me sometime to figure out how to say what I wanted to say. To begin with I want you to know you have been the best Mother to me even in my darker days. You never judged me, just helped me to overcome the obstacles. The last few months have been the best from laughter to the tears. You always found a way to make the situation not seem so big. You have built a dynasty of the true meaning of love. My heart is broken but at the same time so happy for you that you have peace and are surrounded by the loved ones that you missed. You are my Rock and always will be. I know sometimes I don't know how to put my feelings into words, but I know you know and are even now understanding what I want to say. Fly high my angel and rest easy knowing you had your wish come true. I love you Mama ❤️

Nene,

I'm not sure what I'm really supposed to do when a crucial part of my life is gone. From me running over to your closet to check on the baby birds, opening the fridge to see you've stocked it with so many of my favorite snacks, seeing you happy to see me when I stopped by randomly, coming to pick me up from the dealership when I was getting my car worked on and hearing George Lopez blast when I walked by your room at night, to Frazier during the day while we hung out on the front porch. I do know that when the years pass, holidays come and go, nights get lonely, I'll never forget you. My heart is broken, and I'll miss you forever. If I could be an ounce of the person, you were/was, I'd be doing the world a favor. I love you forever Elaine Sheffield. - Britty Cole

I love you so much NeNe you were the best NeNe in the world, and you still are. You are loved by so many. I didn't make the volleyball team, but I will practice and try harder next year. I have straight A's so far and I made new friends. Don't worry I'll watch all the new episodes of Descendants of the Sun and tell you about them. You were amazing and one of the best parts of my life. I love you so much NeNe and you were the best. I still have your favorite moo moo that I sleep with. I love you so much NeNe Sloth! I know you are having the best time in Heaven! I love you NeNe Sloth.

Love always your favorite sloth-Peyton

Mom, Words can't express the pain in my heart but to know the pain you were in has now ended and you are with the Lord gives me peace. Until I see you again ❤️

Melissa Sheffield August 21 at 1:25 PM

We love you and miss you bunches. Words cannot express what I feel. I find comfort in God's divine plan for you. I wish we could keep you forever but I know that is truly selfish. Until we are together again I love you always. ☐
