Fay was more than just a mother in law she was my second mama. She's been a part of my life since I was 16 and I'm thankful God gave me a Christian MIL that lead Timothy and I to Victory Church 25 years ago. That was her goal for all of us to know the Lord and pass it on to each generation of our family and we have. The family will never be the same and there will never be another Fay that's for sure. So many memories!! It's not goodbye it see you soon ❤️ I love you!

Fay was one of those Southern Ladies that if you knew her you would know also how her Lord Jesus, Family and Friends meant so very much to her! What a Celebration in Heaven! She will be missed! Praying for her Family!
