Alisha Elizabeth Hudson

FEB 23, 1983 - DEC 18, 2024

Alisha Elizabeth Hudson was born February 23, 1983, in Cape May Courthouse, New Jersey. She was the daughter of Veronica Saddler and Rames Saddler II. She departed this life on December 18, 2024. Alisha was a passionate person with a pure heart.

Her family recalls how Alisha loved food. She would often prepare her favorite dish, pasta ala vodka, for the whole family. It was her labor of love. And she enjoyed eating as much as she liked serving. She relished fine dining. You couldn't cut corners in treating her to a meal. It had to be a truly upscale outing.

Alisha also loved music and movies. She was sampler of a wide range of musical genres; but if you peeked at her playlist of favorites, you would find artists such as M&M, DMX, Dax, and Sia. And she was always trying to get the family to watch a movie together. Two of her favorite movies were "Rise of the Guardians" and "Goodfellows."

Alisha had a weird sense of humor. Not long ago, she and Joshua accompanied Mom grocery shopping. Alisha stuffed herself in a shopping cart and had Joshua push her around the store until they were ejected by management.

The most important thing to know about Alisha, though, is that she loved her family deeply. She was a person of deep feeling and genuine love. Her heart was pure, just like her mother's. She was a protector, a staunch defender of those she loved- be they family, friend, or another in pain or in need. But she reserved a special place in her heart for her children: Nevaeh, Christopher Jr., and Blake. Her life revolved around them. She loved them deeply and pained for them even deeper.

Alisha was preceded in death by her brother Robert Hale Hudson. Alisha leaves to cherish her memory her beloved children Nevaeh, Christopher Jr., and Blake; her mother Veronica Saddler; her father Rames Saddler II; her siblings, Rondall Lee Hudson, Corey Eugene Hudson, Andrea Victoria Hudson, Shawndell Maree Garcia, Justin Lee Saddler, Rames Lee Saddler III, Zacharias
