My daughter, Kristyn, adored Charlie when he worked at AMF Lakeside Lanes. Kristyn was around 3/4 years old at the time. He was helping her bowl on some down time he had, and when she picked up the bowling ball she tripped or fell(I think) and hit her chin on the ball, busting her chin open and bleeding everywhere. I think Charlie was freaking out more than her. I tried to tell him things like that happen to kids, but he was still freaking out. Haha! To this day she remembers him, not for the chin gash, but for the fun and time he spent with her. ❤️ Thank you Charlie for the memories and smiles you still provide to her!
