I knew Mrs. Dalaba when I attended First Assembly of God in Warren, Ohio. She was such a kind person - kind to everyone. She loved the Lord and her family. I always noted how her eyes lit up with a special sparkle when she looked at her husband. Please accept my sincere condolences. May our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, comfort you during this great loss.

"Sister Ginny" was a fun, loving, peaceful fixture when she spent summers at Pleasant Grove Camp in Schooleys Mountain NJ many decades ago. I don't recall many conversations with her, but as a teen and then a college kid, I recall being comforted and somehow stabilized just seeing her there. My heartfelt love and condolences to her family and all others who loved her over the years, especially " Brother D"Diane ( M-o-r-t-e-l-l-t-e, as her son Curt called me) Saaybe
