We met Ron and Eileen in 1998 after Troy proposed to our daughter, Angie. At the time, Jan and I lived in Titusville, FL. We set a date to meet Ron and Eileen and spend the day with them at Cypress Gardens in Winter Haven, FL. It was instant respect and camaraderie between us. Like us, they were faithful, long-time followers of Christ. How blessed we felt that our daughter was going to be in a well-grounded Christian family. They told us numerous times that Angie was like a daughter they didn't have, and how glad they were to have Angie as Troy's wife. The four of us are so proud of our granddaughter, Cassidy, whom we have enjoyed sharing for 22 years. It was always a special time when we could all be together. We are grateful for the positive influence Eileen and Ron have had on Cassidy. How thankful we are for knowing the Nalls family and being a part of their family. Because of the high standards Troy was taught, he has been a wonderful son, husband and father. The world needs more gracious people like Ron and Eileen. ❤️ We sure do miss you sweet Eileen.
