I first met Donnie when he picked us up at the Havana Airport on my first trip to Cuba. He described everything we were seeing as we drove to his house. At the house, lunch was ready arroz con pollo and fried plantains. It was heaven. ~Jamie Feldman

I will always remember Uncle Dany, as we always called him, with that warm smile that welcomed us into his home in Orlando. He was always sharing stories, which I loved listening to. I will forever remember him with much love and affection. Roy Katz
