Auntie Lois was one of a kind. She was like the energizer bunny, always in motion. I'll always remember the times on Cole Pond with fond memory with the exception of the outhouse. All the Christmas gatherings at grandma Camp's house will always be in my heart forever; such a large gathering of family in such a small house. I don't know how we did it. Auntie Lois was always involved in something be it Liqitex(?) Stanley, or some other product. God blessed her for her energy, for she never wasted a minute. I know she's looking down with a big smile on her face resting in peace.
