“ R.I.P my friend. Knew him all my life, never heard one bad word about him. The last time I talked to him I had been to 3 different parts places looking for a special type of bolts I needed, couldn't find them nowhere. Stopped at his place on my way home from the parts place, sure enough he had exactly what I needed. He said. I knew someone would need these one day. Thanks Eddie for being a good friend. You will be missed dearly. Mrs Becky, Stevie and the rest of his family, I'm very sorry for your loss of such a great son, brother, uncle. God bless you all.

“ Known Eddie and family seems like forever, was in same first grade class, spent more weekends then I can count over at there house riding motorcycles or up at the cabin on the river. Mr Tom gave me my first loan at Imperial Bank, Mrs Becky was my Den mother in cub scouts, Ed and I went on thru to Boy Scouts. Ed was a pallbearer at my Dad's funeral, we where that close. He took great pride in his craft, master plumber he was. Was called in on a few occasions because there dog listened to me more she did them. One of my oldest, dearest, friends, Ed and Denise where always there for me when I needed them most. Not many left of our old bunch, and I value my friendship with those who are still here, Ed's passing has effected me greatly, friends like him are few and far between. R.I.P. now old friend, and thank you Lord for allowing him to suffer no more. rj.
