“ We grew up across the street from Karen. She was a great neighborhood mom, and was always very nice to us as children. I was able to see her later in life as an adult, and was very happy to know we both had accepted Jesus Christ as our Savior. To Matthew, Randy, Mikyung & family - you are in my prayers. You are truly blessed to have been left with such a Godly heritage. May all your precious memories comfort you in the days ahead.

In Christian love,
Robyn Rodems Bryant
