“ Enjoy heaven my forever friend since age 14. I miss you but I will always remember you, " With A Song In My Heart", and beautiful memories❤️🌟 So much love, compassion and friendship was given to many by you but you, suffered so much trauma and rejection. 😞 I have a emptiness in my heart that no one will ever fill. 🙏🌹

“ Rosemary was a beautiful person, inside and out. She lived life, Jesus, her daughter and son, and her grandbabies, and all of her siblings. She often struggled but she always figured it out in the end. She was my cousin, my favorite cousin who always looked out for me. She loved genealogy and took pride in researching our family. Seeing her in 2014 was the best time I had in a long time and spending time with her, although short, was a true Blessing. I know she is flying high with the angels and has been reunited with her mom, dad, sisters, brothers, and probably Aunt Alice and my dad and mom. She will be missed so much and especially the chats her and I had often. RIH Cuz. I love and miss you but know you are fully healed in Jesus Kingdom. Until we meet again...

“ My Mom always put everyone else before herself. She gave until she had nothing left. She taught me to be strong and independent by example. She was head strong and would not back down from any situation no matter how tuff it may have been or how long it took her. You would never meet a person more kind or with a more given heart.

I find it so hard to believe Rose is gone! Friends for over 50 years. Selfless, giving, caring, loving, and her family...kids, grandkids, and greats were her life. It always seemed like she gave and gave and got so little back! I miss her already!!!

I never met Rosemary in person as we had met I believe on Ancestry as we both were researching the McCaffrey line. She was always so helpful and we'd often message each other and laugh about trying to keep names straight and how we wished parents would've named their kids something original rather than after themselves so genealogists wouldn't have so much trouble keeping the names straight.Praying for HIS strength and comfort for her family. RIP dear lady.
